Even Nature Celebrates Halloween: Meet the Bat Orchid

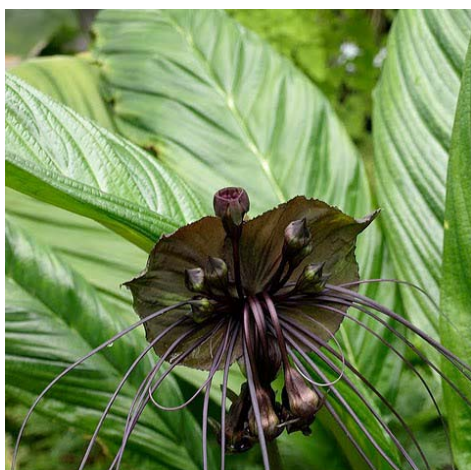

Thought I'd share a very unique flower that one of my suppliers showcased last week: "Tacca Chantrieri, the Bat Orchid." Imported from Holland, this eye catching bloom has a stem length of 20 to 24 inches long and a face about the size of an open hand. Deep chocolate in color similar to Chocolate Cosmos, the Bat Orchid has long dangling whiskers that extend out from broad outer wings.

Availability is limited, so if you must have some for your Halloween party, let me know by Wednesday, 10/20 for delivery the following week. Price per stem.....$60 - yes, they're pricey.
